

Anna Payten

Anna was called to the Bar in 2022. Anna maintains a diverse practice, with a particular focus on criminal law, inquests and inquiries and professional discipline matters.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Anna was a Senior Federal Prosecutor with the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions, where she prosecuted a wide range of offences including in the areas of counter-terrorism, drug importations and money laundering. Prior to that, she was a solicitor at Allens Linklaters, where she specialised in commercial litigation and undertook secondments to Westpac Banking Corporation and the Reserve Bank of Australia.

Anna holds a Bachelor of Laws with First Class Honours and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Sydney.

YEAR OF ADMISSION TO THE BAR
2022

+61 2 8233 0300

a.payten@mauricebyers.com