

Zoe Alderton

Zoe was admitted as a solicitor in 2014 and called to the bar in 2017.

Zoe accepts briefs to advise and appear in a range of proceedings, including criminal law (both at first instance and on appeal), administrative law, professional negligence and discipline, and intentional torts. Zoe also accepts briefs to advise and appear for families and interested parties in coronial inquests and commissions of inquiry.

Zoe is a Senior Member of the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (Guardianship Division).

Prior to coming to the bar, Zoe was a solicitor at the Aboriginal Legal Service in Western NSW.

YEAR OF ADMISSION TO THE BAR
2017

+61 2 8233 0352

z.alderton@mauricebyers.com