Dominic Wilcox

02 8333 0300| d.wilcox@mauricebyers.com

Admissions

2024	Barrister, New South Wales Bar
2017	Solicitor, Supreme Court of New South Wales and High Court of Australia

Education

2024	Master of Laws (Public law), Australian National University High Distinction First place in constitutional law Graduate Research thesis on Structured Proportionality and s 51(xxxi) of the Constitution
2016	Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws, University of Sydney

Professional History

2024 – present	Barrister, Maurice Byers Chambers
2022-2024	Senior Solicitor, Crown Solicitor's Office Administrative law, Mental Health law, High Risk Offenders, inquests, and judicial review
2020-2022	Solicitor, NSW Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions Criminal law, including complex indictable matters
2017-2020	Solicitor, Webb and Boland Lawyers Administrative, criminal, employment, civil, and family law
2016-2017	Research Assistant (Administrative Law), University of Sydney Research assistant to Professor Mary Crock. Research and editing for Protecting Migrant Children: In Search of Best Practice (Elgar, 2018) and Legal Protection of Refugees with Disabilities (Elgar, 2017)
2015-2016	Legal Assistant, Refugee Advice and Casework Service

Selected Cases (appeared as solicitor)

Cory v Commissioner of Police [2019] NSWCATAD 32 (challenge to revocation of Firearms licence)

R v Mongta-Kelly [2020] NSWDC 602 (complex sentence for 28 counts, plea of guilty entered midway through trial)

R v McArthur [2020] NSWDC 706 (sentence for bushfire lighting in South Coast NSW)

R v Phillpott [2020] NSWDC 645 (sentence for specially aggravated break and enter, with complex subjective case)

R v JP [2022] NSWDC (sentence following trial for multiple child sexual abuse charges with disputed facts on sentence, offender gave evidence on sentence, appeared against Senior Counsel)

R v Dedini [2022] NSWDC Unreported (judicial review of refusal of registrar to allow media access to court file)

Cory v Commissioner of Police [2019] NSWCATAD 32 (challenge to revocation of Firearms licence)